BOY WHO TRIED SUICIDE IS PROBLEM IN COURT

Parker Charged With Petit Larceny by Oscar Matz Puzzles Judge.

A case of more than ordinary interest, the state against George Parker, 16 years old, on complaint of Oscar Matz of Osceola, for petit larceny, has been in and out of the local police court for the past several days. Parker is alleged to have committed the offense of appropriating a handful of pennies, a dollar bill, tie pin and an aluminum star, and one white handkerchief from Matz. He was caught Sunday afternoon by Matz, according to his testimony, while attempting to make a "getaway" from the farm. Later in the afternoon he was brought to Mishawaka and placed under arrest. Monday morning he was hauled into court and the case continued to Tuesday. That morning he was turned over to the jurisdiction of Juvenile Pros. W. E. Miller of South Bend and Wednesday he was 16 years old. On account of his age he was again turned back to the local police court, where charges were filed against him, it being impossible to give him trial in the juvenile court of South Bend.

Wednesday morning he was brought back to Mishawaka and confined in a cell at the police station. When Chief Kreiter went to the noon hour to bring him home, he found Parker standing on his bunk with a towel tied around his neck. It was the supposition of the police that he was attempting suicide, because of despondency and being in the hands of the police.

Thursday morning, following the trial, Judge Feig postponed disposition of the case until Friday morning, taking it under advisement. The handkerchief which contained the money and other valuables was found hidden in a hollow stump in a nearby apple orchard of the farm where he had been employed.

Rosa Karolyi, arrested on a charge of provocation, was found guilty by Judge Feig and assessed a fine of $1 and costs, amounting to $11, which she said. She was charged with "spitting" on Rosa Lifty.

INSULTING TO WOMEN AT LOGAN STREET BRIDGE

Complaint has been made to the police that three men who hang out nightly in the vicinity of the Logan st. bridge, have been insulting women who have occasion to pass that way. Ostrander property, Lincoln highway W., a few nights ago.
